

Volunteer Foodbank Manager

Hours: 1 day a week

Pay: Volunteer

Deadline: Tuesday 9th February

Description:

At Alternatives we work with vulnerable families in various capacities, one way we support clients is through our weekly foodbank. We have around 40-50 families that we support with food each week. This role involves sourcing, managing and distributing food to these families alongside a team of volunteers. Usually, food donations are delivered on a Tuesdays between 11-3pm and distributed on Wednesdays. During lockdown we deliver food to clients directly. Please note that this is not usual practice and when lockdown eases clients will resume collecting from our office on Wednesdays between 11-1pm.

Expectations:

- Ensure sufficient stock is available each week to distribute to the families (via online shopping or donations) including bags/boxes to give food away in.
- Organise and run the distribution of food on a Wednesday, whether via collection or delivery (which during lockdown includes creating delivery lists/routes).
- Communicating with volunteers and local groups to ensure good organisation of food collection/distribution

Requirements:

- Access to own vehicle
- Good social and managerial skills
- Available on days and times stated
- Full clean DBS

If you are interested in applying for this position please email alternatives@altel.org.uk telling us a little about yourself, outlining why you would like to fulfil this role and any relevant experience.